

Alaska Group Size Determination Form

In order to determine the group size of your organization, please complete this form and attest to its accuracy.

In the case of an employer that was not in existence throughout the preceding calendar year, the determination of whether the employer is a small employer is based on the average number of employees that it is reasonably expected the employer will employ on business days in the current calendar year.

DEFINITIONS

Small employer means an employer who employed an average of at least 1 but not more than 50 employees on business days during the preceding calendar year and who employs at least 1 employee on the first day of the plan year.

Large employer means an employer who employed an average of at least 51 employees on business days during the preceding calendar year and who employs at least 1 employee on the first day of the plan year.

Employee means any individual who is employed by an employer and meets the IRS Common-Law Test.

Employee does not include a sole proprietor, a partner in a partnership or a 2-percent S corporation shareholder, the spouse of a person who is a sole proprietor, a temporary, seasonal, leased, or contracted employee, a retired employee, or a former employee on continuation coverage.

Controlled group means a controlled or affiliated group of employers treated as a single employer under subsection (b), (c), (m), or (o) of section 414 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986.

If a controlled group is determined as a large employer, each affiliated employer is part of the large employer even if separately the employer would not meet the definition of a large employer. Therefore, each affiliated employer is considered a large group for the purposes of group size determination.

PLEASE ATTEST TO THE FOLLOWING:

1. I attest that this employer group meets the small employer definition. Yes No
2. I attest that this employer group meets the large employer definition. Yes No
3. I attest that this employer group employs at least 1 employee on the first day of the plan year and all employees and owners enrolling satisfy the eligibility requirements as noted in the Application form. Yes No

To the best of my knowledge, I certify that all the information contained herein is correct. Moda Health and Delta Dental of Alaska reserve the right to require documentation of employee eligibility.
